

A COMMITMENT TO COUNSELING

COUNSELEE

As a Christian, I believe God's Word to be the guidebook for living. It is my desire to obey the Lord in every aspect of life. Today, I agree to submit to God's Word and the biblical instruction given in Proverbs 19:20-21; "Listen to counsel and accept discipline that you may be wise the rest of your days. Many are the plans in a man's heart, but the counsel of the Lord, it will stand."

I do commit to the following as God gives me ability.

1. No more debt.
2. Bible Study as assigned and as God leads.
3. Faithfully keeping appointments with my counselor
4. Placing God first and honoring Him by living on a margin plan.

I will do my best to keep focused on the goals agreed upon, so that beginning today, God will be pleased with my life. I am trusting in the promise given in Proverbs 3:4-5, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

COUNSELOR

I promise to advise the counselee to the best of my ability based on God's instruction and financial plan for our lives. I commit to pray for and with the counselee for God's divine wisdom throughout the counseling process. I will honor the appointments and follow up with the counselee as needed.
